

I am against allowing cross-ownership of newspaper and television media by the same company in the same geographic area. Allowing cross-ownership will create even greater bias in newspaper and television media organizations and eliminate independent news analysis through a check and balance system which exists when newspaper and television media are independently owned. Allowing the proposed changes to cross-media legislation to go forward is not in the public interest, but rather serves only the desires of special interest groups.